Zogenix Announces Closing of Public Offering of Common Stock, Including Full Exercise of Over-Allotment Option by Underwriters

November 12, 2013

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 12, 2013 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Zogenix, Inc. (Nasdaq:ZGNX), a pharmaceutical company developing and commercializing products for the treatment of central nervous system disorders and pain, announced today the closing of its previously announced public offering of 30,666,667 shares of its common stock, including 4,000,000 shares sold pursuant to the full exercise of an over-allotment option previously granted to the underwriters, at a price to the public of $2.25 per share. The aggregate net proceeds to Zogenix from this offering are expected to be approximately $64.4 million, after deducting underwriting discounts and commissions and estimated offering costs.

Zogenix intends to use the net proceeds from the offering to fund pre-commercialization and commercialization activities for ZohydroTM ER, additional development activities of Zohydro ER and ReldayTM, and for working capital and other general corporate purposes. Zogenix may also use a portion of the net proceeds to in-license, acquire or invest in complementary businesses or products.

Stifel, Leerink Swann LLC and Wells Fargo Securities, LLC acted as book-running managers for the offering. Oppenheimer & Co. and William Blair & Company, L.L.C. acted as co-managers for the offering.

The securities described above were offered by Zogenix pursuant to registration statements previously filed and declared effective by the Securities and Exchange Commission.
